Message from the President

This year has gone by at an amazing pace – it's hard to believe this is the final newsletter of this centennial year. Dave Miller, Sandy Horton and I met last week for an information exchange and planning session. They are both committed to continuing the tradition of a strong morning club, and have ideas which will make our club even stronger. The world needs Rotary!

I can't allow this year to come to an end without saying thank you to many who've helped me.

Of course, both Dave and Sandy have had a large role in making this year a success. Dave has put together an outstanding lineup of speakers – even if I didn't have to be at each week's meeting, I would want to because of the variety of speakers and topics. Sandy has always been willing to plan, organize, and usually host our social events. We're fortunate to have a party planner with her skills and talents.

Arch Oldehoeft has been our tireless webmaster and editor of our electronic newsletter– I can always count on a gentle reminder of the upcoming deadline for newsletter publication. I'm sure you'll agree that our website is something to be proud of, whether you need to access the calendar, a link, or to obtain a fellow member's phone number or email address.

John Lott has continued his song leader duties, and his custom songs are most anticipated – it's particularly nice when you're not the subject of the song!

Our treasurer, Jim Ziebold, deserves the thanks of our club. It's hard to fault his positive attitude.

Finally, our weekly meetings happen due to the preparation and dedication of our sergeants at arms, Jim Obrecht, Blair Brewer and Doug Ward. They're almost always the first ones at our meeting, and usually about the last to leave. Due to their dedication, our flags are displayed, the buck bucket is ready, and the job of presiding over the meeting is enjoyable and easy.

We've celebrated 100 years of Rotary! I look forward to working with each of you as we begin our second century of Service Above Self!
